April 13, 2022

Celestial Caring Enterprise, LLC announces that the official music video for, "Tame Da Tongue" by J-Rob was released on April 8, 2022. The world premiere was held on April 8, 2022, at 4pm EST on YouTube and Facebook. The music video was filmed by Maker of MakerFilms and produced by Solid of Mass ProduXion. The cover artwork was designed by DJ Cabezon of HDHD-Designs.

Currently, "Tame Da Tongue" by J-Rob is spinning on radio stations around the world. The official debut single, "Tame Da Tongue" will release on all major digital outlets and streaming platforms soon.

"Tame Da Tongue" by J-Rob is about people being careful in what they say because their tongue is a lethal weapon.

"I might not be able to change the whole world, but at least I can make a difference in someone's world. Come and join me to be a positive wire as we go through this journey. "Tame Da Tongue" is to remind us of how our words can impact someone else's life," said J-Rob.

James Wexler aka J-Rob is an inspirational Christian artist residing in Kissimmee, Florida. He inspires and empowers people through his music. J-Rob's lyrical style blesses people to turn from their destructive lifestyle and start living a righteous life.

In the making of the video, "Tame Da Tongue" people can see that their words can cause them or others to be imprisoned. "Making this video was fun, but at the same time emotional because words do impact people's lives," said J-Rob. In this video, there are scenes of J-Rob in jail. "People go through storms, but it's never too late to call out to God," said J-Rob. J-Rob worked with Maker, Solid, Brian, and Frank to show the world that words can hinder and imprison people.
