

J-Rob Gives Youth a Back-to-School "Wake Up Call" at a Virtual Music Concert

ORLANDO, Fla. - Aug. 31, 2020 - PRLog -- Christian Rap Artist, J-Rob with iMG Recordings & Distribution performed at a virtual music concert, Vero G Spotlight TV Presents Online Music Concert held on 8/29/20. The 7th artist to perform was Sychobill. The single, "Wake Up Call" by Sychobill was the last song performed. Dreadie Smallz was the 8th artist to perform. "Wake Up Call featuring J-Rob" by Sychobill sends out a positive message to the upcoming generations to let them understand that being out in the streets is not the way to be, but they must stay in school and get their education.

"The show was amazing! Vero G and her team were absolutely 100% caring, honest, and truthful. They are positive people, such as me, and that is what the world needs today. Everybody has a dream, but it is what you do to make your dream become your reality. I give all glory to God for giving me opportunities that He does, and to see the talent of all the upcoming new artists is truly a blessing," said J-Rob.

"J-Rob is my manager. Ever since I met him, he has been 100% honest with me and trying to push me to reach my goals & follow my dreams," said Dreadie Smallz, Artist.

James Robert Wexler later known as J-Rob was born in Sylver, North Carolina and raised in Brooklyn, NY where he resided for 7 years. At the age of 7, he moved with his parents to Orlando, FL where he resides today. At a young age, J-Rob was involved in street activities with the wrong crowd that led to him being shot in the back of his head at the tender age of 10 while walking to school. In 2000, J-Rob wanted to be a rapper and have a successful music career, and now signed to iMG Recordings under the direction of Rick Robinson, formally known as Double R from Bone Thugs & Harmony.

J-Rob recently completed his forthcoming anticipated single, "God's Got Me," produced by Lee Lee, and currently working on his forthcoming EP, "Blessed." "God's Got Me" is his debut single off his EP. Furthermore, he just finished building a home music studio, J-Rob Studios.
